Questions:
What are the arguments for and against a linear non-threshold approach to regulation of environmental chemicals?

One page or less. List each argument separately. You must present both sides of the argument.