

Citing Sources

1. Author (last name, first name)
2. "Title of Article"
3. Title of Publication
4. Date, volume, number, page.
5. Name of database
6. Date you retrieved article.
7. URL (if homepage)

Article from a Database

Huston, Margo. "Keeping a Foot in the Door: Catching Families Before they Fall into Homelessness." Milwaukee Journal Sentinel. 22 February 1998, Sunday final ed.: News 1. Retrieved Lexis-Nexis Universe 1 November 2002.

Homepage

"New Report exposes tobacco industry tactics to derail public health efforts in Latin American and the Caribbean." World Health Organization Homepage. 8 January 2003. <<http://www.who.int./en/>>

MIT OpenCourseWare
<http://ocw.mit.edu>

21G.222 Expository Writing for Bilingual Students
Fall 2002

For information about citing these materials or our Terms of Use, visit: <http://ocw.mit.edu/terms>.